Event: Onam Celebrations 2023

On August 29, 2023, the Department of Commerce (DoC) at MAHE Bengaluru celebrated Onam, a significant cultural festival marking the harvest season in Kerala. This report highlights the key moments and student involvement during the event, emphasizing how such activities contribute to the holistic development of students and foster a vibrant campus culture.

Event Overview

Onam, traditionally a festival rich in cultural heritage, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and creativity by the students of MAHE Bengaluru. The event provided an excellent platform for students to exhibit their talents, enhance their organizational skills, and contribute to the cultural tapestry of the campus.

Student Involvement and Contributions

1. Thematic Skit: Vamana-Balichakravathi Scene

Description: The students presented a skit depicting the legendary Vamana-Balichakravathi story, an integral part of Onam folklore. This performance not only showcased the students' acting abilities but also their understanding of cultural narratives and traditions.

Impact: The skit received widespread acclaim for its creative representation and engaging storytelling, reflecting the students' dedication to preserving and promoting cultural heritage.

2. Musical Medley

Description: A group of students performed a medley of traditional and contemporary songs, blending various musical styles to entertain the audience. The performance was designed to evoke the festive spirit of Onam while displaying the students' musical talents.

Impact: The medley was a crowd-pleaser, resonating well with the audience and adding to the celebratory atmosphere of the event.

3.Dance Performances

Description: The event featured dynamic dance performances that included traditional Kerala dance forms as well as modern dance routines. These performances were choreographed and executed by students, demonstrating their creativity and coordination.

Impact: The dance segments energized the audience and highlighted the students' ability to engage in collaborative and artistic expression.

Organizational Aspects and Closing Remarks

The success of the Onam celebrations was not only due to the individual talents of the students but also their effective organizational skills. The planning and execution of the event involved:

Team Coordination: Students formed various teams responsible for different aspects of the event, including stage setup, performance scheduling, and audience management.

Event Management: The smooth conduct of the event was a testament to the students' organizational capabilities, from handling logistics to ensuring timely transitions between performances.

The Onam celebrations at the Department of Commerce, MAHE Bengaluru were a resounding success, providing students with a memorable experience and an opportunity to showcase their diverse talents. Such events are integral to student life as they not only celebrate cultural traditions but also foster skills in teamwork, leadership, and creative expression. The enthusiasm and skill displayed by the students reaffirm the value of involving students in organizing and participating in campus events as part of their holistic development.

We extend our gratitude to all the students, faculty members, and event organizers who contributed to the success of the Onam celebrations. Their dedication and hard work were instrumental in making the event a memorable and enriching experience for the entire campus community.
